JAIL DELIVERY AT LEWIS COUNTY BASTILLE

Two Pass Jailer's Wife and Marshal and Make Good Their Escape.

The Lewis County Leader says: Last Thursday while Chas. Ruggles was giving water to the prisoners confined in the county jail, two prisoners attacked him, cutting his hand and hitting him on the head.

The story as told us by Mr. Ruggles is as follows: When he entered the jail, Mrs. Sullivan, the jailer's wife, was holding the door. The prisoners made a dash, knocking her down and going over the top of her. Mr. Ruggles was struck over the head, knocking him senseless, and was severely cut. The prisoners, John Clark, and the unknown man who tried to pass a bogus check on J. T. Ort, escaped and have not been heard of.

The forger, it is alleged, stole a horse from Mr. Curds, of Crum, the same night he escaped.

WOUNDED MAN IS SINKING STEADILY IN HOSPITAL HERE

Lee Carr Shot at Mayslick Dance Thursday Night Will Not Likely Recover From Wound Attending Physicians Think.

Lee Carr, of Washington Court House, Ohio, district manager for the Sunlight Creamery Company, with headquarters in Maysville, is at the point of death at Hayeswood Hospital with a gun shot wound in his abdomen inflicted at a dance at Mayslick Thursday evening by an unknown man supposed to be a friend of a young man with whom Carr is said to have had trouble earlier in the evening.

Some trouble arose between Carr and a young man from Nicholas county early in the evening when an attempt was made to divide a couple dancing by Carr and Carr is said to have struck the Nicholas county man in the face knocking him to the floor. Particulars of the shooting which happened after this trouble and on the outside of the dance hall are hard to get. Lucy Ritchie and Hazel Spurgeon, Maysville girls who accompanied Carr to Mayslick, say that during an intermission with Carr and another young man took an automobile ride and returning to the dance hall Carr remarked that the crowd was getting a little rough and the girls suggested going home. As the auto drove up in front of the dance hall, the girls say a young man, stepped up to the auto and asked Carr if he wanted to start something and Carr replied that he did not but that if he had to he could whereupon the young man drew a revolver and fired striking Carr in the abdomen. The girls say they are positive that the man who shot Carr was not the one with whom he had trouble previously.

Physicians operated Friday morning. Carr's bowels are punctured and there is little hope for his recovery.

The committee on arrangements from the local lodges of Odd Fellows has practically completed arrangements for the meeting of the Grand Lodge in this city on November 15th and 16th.

SPECIAL SQUAD OF DRY MEN COMING

To Break Up "Bootleggers' Trust" in Kentucky, Lucas Says Hayes Informed Him While Here.

Louisville, Oct. 28.—A special squad of prohibition agents is to be sent to Kentucky on order of Commissioner Roy A. Hayes to break up the "bootleggers' trust" in this state, according to Revenue Collector Robert H. Lucas, who returned Thursday from a conference at Lexington with the chief prohibition official.

The collector said he called the commissioner's attention to the existence of an organization of men who have removed whisky from a number of distilleries and disposed of it illegally. Several distilleries are involved. The collector said, and he asked the commissioner to send a squad of special men to investigate the robberies, faked or real, and to break up the looting.

However, there have been no distillery robberies in the last several weeks and Commissioner Hayes told him, Mr. Lucas said, that he believed Lucas' "shoot to kill" order to the distillery guards was largely responsible.

The collector said that Commissioner Hayes thought that the tendency of the press to expose distillery robberies and fight bootleggers was largely responsible for a betterment of conditions.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER COMPANY
128 William Street, New York

How to make it

Use level measurements for all materials

1/2 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups sugar
Grated rind of 1/2 orange
1 egg and 1 yolk
1/2 cup milk
4 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
1/2 square (1 1/2 oz.) of unsweetened chocolate (melted)
1/4 teaspoon salt

Cream shortening. Add sugar and grated orange rind. Add beaten egg yolk. Sift together flour, salt and Royal Baking Powder and add alternately with the milk; lastly fold in one beaten egg white. Divide batter into two parts. To one part add the chocolate. Put half portions, alternating dark and light batter, into three greased layer cake pans. Bake in moderate oven over 20 minutes.

FILLING AND ICING
3 tablespoons melted butter 2 tablespoons orange juice
3 cups powdered sugar 1 egg white (3 oz.)
Powdered sugar must be used but does not make a smooth icing; unsweetened chocolate is to be used in place of 1/2 orange and pulp of 1 orange

Put butter, sugar, orange juice and rind into bowl. Mix pulp from orange, removing skin and seeds, and add. Beat together until smooth. Fold in beaten egg white. Spread this icing on layer used for top of cake. While icing is soft, sprinkle with unsweetened chocolate shaved in fine pieces with sharp knife (square). To remaining icing add 2 1/2 squares unsweetened chocolate which has been melted. Spread this thickly between layers and on sides of cake.

Thursday and Friday, June 21, 22 and 23.

Moreover, the sixteenth International Sunday school convention will not be a convention of speeches only. Experts of national and international fame will be heard but a considerable amount of time will be given to institutes work by groups. This makes it possible for Sunday school workers with children, or young people or adults to get instruction for their particular need. It also gives opportunity for those whose work is of an administrative character or among special types of people or in the field of missions or temperance, to study their own particular problem in a group giving itself to this task alone. There will also be conferences of those who prepare the lesson systems, those who write the helps for the Sunday school lessons, and the publishers of lesson helps and dealers in Sunday school supplies.

It is planned that there shall be an "Association Day Service" in all of the Sunday schools of the continent on convention Sunday, June 25. On this day the conventioners will attend the Sunday school of their preference in Kansas City, and many of them will supply pulpits in the Twin Cities. The evening meeting will be given over to the work of the World's Sunday School Association of which Honorable John Wanamaker is president and Mr. Frank L. Brown is executive secretary. This program will be prepared and presented by the officers of the world's association.

Professor H. Augustine Smith of Boston University will be in charge of the music. Mr. Arthur F. Stevens of the Methodist Book Concern, New York City, will prepare and direct a great exhibit of Sunday school helps, supplies and activities.

A memorial service will be held for Sunday school leaders of the United States and Canada who have died since the last convention which was held in Buffalo, New York, June 19 '25, 1918. Furloughed foreign missionaries who may be in the country are to be registered without fee and invited to sit on the platform. The registration fee for all others is to be $3.50 which includes a copy of the printed report for the convention.

Special recognition will be given to the Golden Anniversary of the introduction of the uniform lessons, which

New York.—I am always thinking up clever advertising for mythical enterprises, because one gets so fed up with some of the stuff which is always bobbing up before you. I was in the recording laboratory of one of the big talking machine concerns lately and had a very good time. It seemed so ludicrous to see a huge jazz band mounted on dunes of stony varying heights blowing away into one little horn which was recording their wheezes, without any apparent point or purpose. But as I came out of a side door and looked over to the main entrance to the room, I saw a typical spread footed colored janitor, leaning up against the door, his ear firmly fastened to the portal crack, absolutely carried away by the seductive notes from within. As he stood there he was the best picture for an ad I had ever seen. I could think of many slogans for my ad; "Gets 'em right here where we make 'em"; "The help won't work for listeners"; but like so many other ideas of mine, I suppose no one will ever benefit by them.

WOMEN'S WOES

Maysville Women Are Finding Relief
At Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing-down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pain, and many aches from kidneyills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. E. L. Cullen, 322 West Second street, Maysville, says: "Three years ago I had an attack of kidney trouble and my back ached continually. I had no ambition to do my housework and everything seemed a drag to me while going about it. My kidneys ached all the time. My kidneys were not acting regularly and in other ways showed signs of disorder. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I sent to Wood & Son's drug store and got a box. After using them I got over the trouble entirely and have never since been bothered. I willingly recommend this remedy."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Cullen had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mts., Buffalo, N. Y.

It looks as if all the talk about the slump in theatricals, due to road expense, disputes between the managers and the actor organizations, and the cut of plays in the New York market, has at least suggested a solution, worked out in the plans of The Curtain, the very newest theatrical venture here. An advisory committee, which reads like a combined social and art register, would father the work of an organization of which Mrs. Vera de Cordova Sanville, Rienzi de Cordova, and Edith Ellis, are the executive committee. The Curtain is to be a small house of 299 seating capacity and it is to be situated on the upper west side. This tiny little temple is to house all of the allied arts, and while experimental in its objects is to be made up entirely of professionals and competent amateurs as will work under professional direction. There is to be a children's department, where plays for the young are to be tried out at special matinees. Plays of the best are offered this ambitious group from such writers as John Drinkwater, Willy Pogany, Robert Henri and S. J. Wolf, and actors, Mrs. Fiske, Margaret Anglin, Margaret Wycherly, George Arliss, Lionel Atwill, Hobrook Blinn offers to "carry a spear", and Richard Bennett play a butler—of them there is no end. Here at last seems to be the "Repertoire Theater."

—NY—

The old devotees of the nineteenth hole have a final shock in store for them out of the world of golf. The Madison Brook Club Corporation, organized from wealth and position here is to have three eighteen hole courses of which one is to be entirely for women. A woman golfer never had a chance on any links on Saturday or Sunday and her dubbing around was only tolerated during the week, but in this organization she is to have the right of way every day. The Club promises to be one of the show country clubs of the East, but no feature will be more impressive to the male fanatic than this unheard of innovation. Of course they used to say the nineteenth hole ceremonial would never pass—perhaps the women knew all the time. They are looking after themselves at any rate.

LUCY JEANNE PRICE

U. S. LUMBER CUT DECREASED IN 1920

Western States Alone Show Increases
In the Cut of Lumber During the Year 1920.

Washington, D. C.—The lumber cut of the United States in 1920 was 33,798,800,000 feet, which is 2.2 per cent. less than in 1919, and 27 per cent. than the peak in 1907.

The average price of lumber at the mill increased to $38.42 per thousand, which is a rise of 150 per cent. since 1910. The aggregate value of the cut is $1,299,000,000. These are the highest annual valuations ever recorded, but do not indicate present conditions.

They merely reflect the extremely high peak in the post-war lumber prices which was passed in the first quarter of 1920.

These are the principal statistics obtained by the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture, in its 1920 canvass of American sawmills. They are based upon reports from 15,978 active mills out of 23,243 estimated to have been in operation. Several thousand mills cutting less than 50,000 feet were not tabulated, though allowance was made for their cut. Comparisons with 1919 are published by permission of the Bureau of the Census, United States Department of Commerce.

The tables show that the states which increased their cut are all in the Pacific Coast group and the Rocky Mountains. Washington is first as usual. Oregon attains second place for the first time, displacing Louisiana from a position held for 15 years, while California takes rank among the first five, displacing another southern yellow pine state.

In 1920 the Pacific and Rocky Mountain groups of states, produced 35.6 per cent. of the cut. The eight states of the southern pine group produced 34 per cent., while all the rest of the United States produced 30.4 per cent.

The combined production of Douglas fir and western yellow pine, which in 1919 was less than 6 per cent. of the amount of southern yellow pine cut, in 1920 became 8 per cent. This relative increase in the western species arises in part from the decrease in southern pine production, which amounted to 15 per cent. The conditions reported by southern operators, arising directly or indirectly from the World War, were so adverse that the southern pine may be expected to recover part of the lost ground during the next few years. But the indications of the statistics are that the supremacy in lumber production held by the southern pine states has passed the zenith and is moving to the West.

THE DOOR SLAMS
ON HAPPINESS

Poor Blood Makes Bad Health—Then Come the "Blues."

Once the vigor of red blood becomes sapped of its strength, the door to happiness is literally slammed. Weariness of body follows and it unfailingly engenders depressed thoughts. To be reserved and cheerless becomes a habit. After a time there is an almost filmy dimness in the expression of the eyes and a pallor to the skin. Days seem dull and dark and difficult. A sense of insufferable gloom pervades the spirit.

Then it is that Gude's Pepto-Man-gan is the great help. It is a red blood builder. It puts red into the blood—increases the number of corpuscles which make blood rich and red. When the blood is restored to its natural healthy state, the sensation of well-being returns. Instead of sulking along carelessly, there is the firm and springy step, the bright lustful eyes, the clear complexion, identified with the strength and vigor of good health. The druggist has Gude's Pepto-Man-gan in both liquid and tablet form.—Advertisement.

RAIL STRIKE IS CALLED OFF BY THE BIG FIVE LEADERS

Public Sentiment That Strike Was Against the Government Forces
Officials to Annul the Strike Orders.

Chicago, Oct. 28. — The rail strike scheduled for October 30 was averted Thursday night when leaders of the switchmen, trainmen, conductors, engineers and firemen at a joint meeting adopted resolutions withdrawing authorization of a walkout, and officials of the railroad telegraphers' organization announced that they would take similar action. There were the only unions which had authorized a strike.

The vote calling off the strike was unanimous by organizations, W. G. Lee, President of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen announced. The official wording of the resolution adopted was that the "strike be declared not effective."

Unofficial reports were that the firemen's executives had strenuously opposed adoption of the resolution. None of the President would confirm this, however.

L. E. Sheppard, President of the Order of Railway Conductors, said that the unions had decided to call off the strike because of the growing public opinion that the strike would be against the Labor Board, and, consequently, the government, and not against the railroads.

"It was evident also that the entire Washington administration was against us and that we have had little chance of gaining our objectives," said Mr. Sheppard.

"We called this strike to gain certain rights to which our men were entitled."

"It soon became evident, however, that the roads were succeeding in their misleading propaganda to the effect that we really would be striking against the government.

"This railroad propaganda found its way to the United States Railroad Labor Board. This governmental agency told us that it would look on a strike as against it and the government, and not against the roads, and that the full force of the government would be brought to bear against us if we walked out. Under such circumstances there was nothing to do but annul our orders for the October 30 walkout."

LOCAL DAM WILL BE IN OPERATION BY SATURDAY EVENING

Wickets Now Being Placed and Locks
Will Be Temporarily Worked By Government Boat Completing Ohio River Chain.

Dam 33 just east of Maysville will be in operation by Saturday evening, this announcement was made from the U. S. Engineers' Office at the dam at noon Friday.

Wickets are now being raised slowly so as to prevent a sudden drop in the river below the dam. Work at raising the wickets was begun Thursday and they are being brought up gradually today. It is thought that they will all be in position by Saturday evening and the locks and dam will be in perfect operation.

The locks are all ready for operation being handled by power furnished by a government steamboat temporarily hooked to the machinery as the permanent power house is not yet in operation. Thus far no steamboat has been locked through but this will probably be done Saturday or Sunday for the first time.

The completion of the local dam will greatly facilitate the shipment of coal from the mines in the Big Kanawha district to Cincinnati and Louisville during the slack water period. With the completion of this dam every alternate dam in the chain between Point Pleasant, W. Va., and Fernbank will be in operation.

FIRST "COAL WAVE" IN OHIO IS DUE HERE ON MONDAY.

The first of a series of "coal waves" in the Ohio River is due to arrive at Cincinnati on Monday, according to Colonel Kutz of the United States Engineers, who said Thursday that he was ready to start an artificial wave in the river in response to a request from Cincinnati coal men. The "wave" will enable a number of fleets of coal-laden barges to make the trip down the shallow river which they otherwise would not be able to navigate.

More "coal waves" will follow at regular intervals during the next six weeks unless the rainy season sets in.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Third Street M. E. church invites the public in general to come and hear Miss Hess, a returned missionary from Africa, Friday evening at 7 o'clock. An interesting service is promised.

FIND OIL IN FLEMING.

Flemingsburg, Ky., Oct. 28. — An oil well in the vicinity of Colfax, this county, which was drilled 300 feet four years ago by Fleming county men, and abandoned after a showing of oil was made, blew in this week scattering oil for some distance. The well has continued to flow. The oil has been examined and declared by those who profess to know to be a high grade Comeret oil. The abandoned well is in the neighborhood of a well now being drilled by Chicago interests, which has reached a depth of 1,000 feet with only a slight showing.

PORSCHE MAN MUST GO TO PEN.

A two-year sentence in F. W. Penitentiary was Judge John Weld Peck's answer to the plea of Edward L. Strittmatter, grain dealer, of Portsmouth, Ohio, for mercy in Federal court Wednesday. He pleaded guilty to 20 counts of forging bills of lading on fictitious grain shipments. He borrowed $26,000 from Portsmouth banks on the strength of these, it was alleged.

Judge Peck said Strittmatter was entitled to no more sympathy than a common forger.
